Stockholm, October 2, O. S.

M. Utterodt received laſt Poſt a Letter from Prince Adolphe Weiſſenfeltz to the King of Sweden, deſiring his Majeſty's Vote and Favour at the Diet of the Empire, where he ſollicits the Poſt of General of the Artillery, vacant by the Prince of Bevern's Promotion. Though Prince Maximilian of Heſſe-Caſſel is a Candidate for the ſame Employment, his Swediſh Majeſty very graciouſly and generouſly anſwered, that as there might probably be more than one made, he ſhould be for the Prince of Weiſſenfeltz's having the Rank. It is generally thought that our Diet will not laſt longer than this Month.

Berlin, Oct. 16, N. S. On Tueſday laſt at Noon the Prince Royal arrived at Potzdam, as he was expected, where he found the Princeſs his Conſort. The Phyſicians have at laſt told his Pruſſian Majeſty, that there are no Hopes of his Recovery, of which the King being but too ſenſible himſelf, he received that Declaration like a Perſon well prepared to die. By his Majeſty's Order, the Miniſter of the Garriſon-Church at Potzdam comes to him regularly twice or three times a Day; and all Accounts agree that his Pruſſian Majeſty is quiet and eaſy, and perfectly reſigned to the Will of Providence. The Complication of Diſtempers which his Pruſſian Majeſty had upon him, did at laſt turn into a Dropſy. From his Head down to the Pit of his Stomach he is grown a perfect Skeleton, and his lower Parts are much ſwelled, and within theſe few Days he has had no Feeling in his Legs. The only Care of the Phyſicians is how to eaſe him a little, and prolong his Days the moſt they can, the utmoſt Period of which, they continue to ſay, cannot exceed this Month.

Hague, Oct. 19, N. S. The States of Holland continue their Aſſembly, the Penſionary being ſo far recovered of his late Fit of the Gout, as to be able to be preſent at it. The Admiralties have been here for ſome Days paſt, to be conſulted by the States on Maritime Affairs. His moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange is expected here the latter End of this Month. Letters from the Imperial Army in Italy of the 6th adviſe, that Count Konigſegg having received a Reinforcement of 6000 Men, and an Order from Vienna to attack the Allies, let the Conſequence be what it would, had left the Seraglio and was advanced towards the Oglio, with a Deſign to attempt a Paſſage and bring the Allies to an Action, who were lining the other Side of that River.

Hague, Oct. 22, N. S. The States of Holland will ſeparate To-morrow, and reaſſume the Aſſembly on Tueſday next. They have conſented, without Guaranty, to the Demand of the Town of Dantzick, to borrow in the Country 200,000 Crowns at Five per Cent, aſſigning the Cuſtoms of the Town for the Payment of the Intereſt and Capital, the Reimburſement of the ſaid Capital to begin olny after Five Years, and to be entirely reimburſed at the End of Nine Years: Though there be no Guaranty of the States, that Sum is already ſubſcribed at Amſterdam. M. Fabricius, one of the two Secretaries of the States of Holland is very ill, and there are already ſeveral Competitors for his Employment; M. Viſſcher, Fiſcal of the Admiralty of Rotterdam, formerly Penſionary at Dort, and afterwards at Haerlem, a very able Man, is one of the Chief. Letters from Italy of the 8th Inſtant give an Account, that upon the Approach of the Imperial Army to the Oglio, M. de Maillebois, who was before Mirandola, had abandon'd the Siege, and was ordered to joyn the main Army of the French with his Body of Troops.
